

16 January 1963

STATINTL

This letter is to express our appreciation for the briefing you gave our Education Committee on the morning of 15 January 1963. We particularly appreciate this when we know that you had to take your time and travel clear across the country to fulfill our invitation.

I am certain that the information you gave us on programmed instruction served to reinforce and emphasize the many facets of this method of instruction with which some of us were previously cognizant, and stressed to others the importance of this as an upcoming technique in training.

Once again, thank you kindly for your presentation.

Sincerely,

Educational Specialist
